An Excellent Record

Fourteen years ago while Mr Bole was waiting for his first client in Jackson, Judge Fred V. Wood was acting as police judge in the city of Oakland. This court has a wide jurisdiction, and covers all crimes, other than those punishable by imprisonment in state prison. Some of the ablest and most brilliant lawyers around the bay are engaged in practice in that court.

Before Mr Bole had his first case, Judge Wood was deciding cases argued by such eminent barristers as Hon. Victor H. Metcalf, afterwards appointed secretary of the navy; Hon. H. A. Melvin, now a justice of the supreme court; Hon. S. P. Hall, now justice of district court of appeals; ex-supervisor court judge, A. L. Frick; ex-supervisor court judge E. M. Gibson; Carl Cook, J. C. Martin; H. A. Moore, M. C. Chapman, Robt. M. Fitzgerald, Phil. Walch, W. W. Foote, and many others.

CONTEMPTIBLE POLITICS

Republican Candidate for Sheriff Assailed from Ambush.

(From Amador Record, Oct. 20)
Amador City, Cal., Oct. 18, 1910.
Editor Amador Record.—I notice that the Amador Ledger is indulging in its usual tirade of abuse of U. S. Gregory. This, it will be remembered, has been the policy of that paper just prior to every election. It seems to me that where an official so conducts his office that no word of fault is found with his work for four years, it is bad taste to attack him just prior to each election, and especially to find fault with him for something over which he has no control. If the board of supervisors see fit to give Mr Ratto, the picture show man or anyone else a free license, which it seems they did, and which they have the authority to do under the license ordinance as the Ledger admits, why should Gregory be blamed for not collecting, even if the supervisors did wrong in giving a free license. They, and not the collector, should be censured.

However, this and other silly complaints such as recommending an exception for a poor aged, paralytic is not what the people care to hear at this time. If the sheriff did recommend a free license for a period of six months to Captain Glenn, every person who knows the circumstances surrounding the case, will, to say the least, give the sheriff credit for having a streak of kindness and human sympathy in his make up. Neither do the taxpayers and voters care how much salary, etc., any official draws, so long as he gets what the law allows him for his services and no more, but what they do want is for an officer to do his work faithfully and well. They know that whoever is elected sheriff will pull down the same amount until such time as the law is changed, and the pay made less. Therefore it seems to me that the only question to be considered is who can give the people the best service for the money. U. S. Gregory or John S. Davis. This is the only sensible way to look at it. If Mr Gregory has made the people a good sheriff, and taxpayers think he will do his duty in the future as well as in the past, then in their own interest, regardless of personal preference or political bias, they should elect him to the office he now holds.

As for his opponent, Mr Davis, all that can be said is that he is untried and inexperienced. The only opportunity that any one has to get a line on his fitness for the work has been here in Amador City during the last year or so, while he has acted in the capacity of deputy sheriff, and to say the least, he has not impressed the citizens here as being suitable for the position for sheriff. During the whole time he made but one arrest, although much trouble and many violations of the law occurred in our town. I say this in all fairness to Mr Davis, and I honestly believe that if he should succeed in defeating Mr Gregory that not only the people will have cause to regret the change, but Mr Davis himself will find that he is not suited for the work, and will be sorry that he ever aspired to the position.

What I have written is in all fairness, and without prejudice to either side, and I hope that the electors of Amador county will weigh the question well in selecting the man to fill this important office and vote in accordance with their honest convictions and for the best interest and welfare of all the people of Amador county.

FAIRPLAY.

The writer of the above screed, and he doesn't live far from Jackson, should have signed his name "Unfair Play," as far more in keeping with the spirit of the communication. The trick of sending articles dated from another town and having the same published in order to show the sentiment on a political issue regarding rival candidates is too transparent to deceive anyone. It seems like the dernier resort of the despairing democratic clique to stem the popular current of opinion which is setting so strongly against them. It stands on a par with the move to straddle both sides of the political fence by making personal appeals to voters for the nomination on two opposing tickets.

It will be noticed that the above article was written by one who claims to be well posted on the subjects treated. He knows the "circumstances surrounding the case," as he puts it. We believe he does, and no one better than he.

The defender tries to wriggle out of the dilemma about the free license granted to Ratto, by putting the blame upon the supervisors. We are not defending the supervisors for their part of the transaction. But how about the fact that the sheriff failed to collect from Ratto, or even make demand for license, of nearly a year, during which that individual was showing his pictures. The collector made no effort to demand license or report him for non-payment of license. The arrears had mounted up to over $500, uncovered by any gracious permit, and would doubtless be running in the same way yet, had the Ledger not unmasked the affair, for which he received, not thanks but curses for his work from those who are paid for attending to such matters. Who was at fault for this glaring oversight—to use the mildest term—if not the sheriff.

Now then, concerning the free license to Captain Glenn—a "poor, aged paralytic," as the sheriff's booster asserts. This is a particularly reprehensible move on the part of the sheriff. It must be borne in mind that Glenn was three months—or one quarter's license—behind, when the subject was brought up. The unearthing of the Ratto delinquency was no doubt the cause of bringing this case to the front. Sheriff Gregory was the sole mover in this case. There was no application by the license payer himself. It is hardly a commendable act for a collector of revenue to appear before a governing body and ask that one individual be favored by being released from the obligation of contributing his share for the support of the government. We fail to see any warrant for such action on the part of the officer. On the contrary it appears to be against the express provision of law. Section 4071 of the political code reads as follows:

No county officer shall, except for his own service, present any claim, account, or demand for allowance against the county, nor in any way advocate the relief asked on the claim or demand made by another. Any citizen and taxpayer of the county in which he resides may appear before the board and oppose the allowance of any claim or demand made against the county.

Is that the way for an official to show sympathy for a brother partisan by brushing the law aside, and begging off for license taxes in his behalf, without the scratch of a pen from the beneficiary asking for the concession. Does it not look that the collector was pleading for himself rather than the one liable for license, because he had already allowed him to fall in arrears one quarter. It would have looked better had he dug into his own pocket if he was so anxious to befriend him, instead of traveling outside his official duty, and running counter to the plain provisions of law, in the matter.

Now the slap at Mr Davis, ostensibly but not really coming from a brother townsman, is of the boomerang order. It is having just the contrary effect to that intended. The town repudiates its authorship, and a feeling has been created solidifying the voters more effectually in the support of Davis. Mr Davis was deputy sheriff, appointed as such at the request of the citizens of Amador during the labor trouble. By his tact and firmness the crisis was timed over without disturbance, and he was commended by the citizens, and also by his principal, for his management. He asked to be relieved from the position thereafter, but his resignation was not accepted by the present sheriff, and he was not relieved until after his nomination as the republican candidate at the last primary election. It was none of Mr Davis' business to neglect his business to do constable's work in that town, for which someone else was receiving pay. And it was distinctly understood that he was not expected to do such work, as there was nothing in it for him. Hence, that he has made but one arrest is not to his discredit, but to the discredit of those who are paid by the county for doing such work. What has Mr Gregory done in the criminal line during the past four years, with all his years of experience in the game, to recommend him as a detective par excellence. He boasts that he has kept watch at nights, while the general public was asleep. If this be so the outcome was nil. The petty thefts continued month after month, and not an arrest made. The Krevo murder case—the only capital crime in this official term—is unraveled; not a step nearer solution to-day than immediately after its commission. What about the burglaries and robberies. How many crimes of this character have been ferreted out by the sheriff's individual efforts. An eight year-old girl was arrested and sent to the reformatory. Two men—Trebilcock and Harry S. Cobb, have violated their parole recently, and are wanted for so doing. They are both still at large. Now, if persons who are well known, and can be fully described, can so easily evade the clutches of the officers, what can be expected in cases where no such clues are available. The long experience in detective work seems to be on the back-action track in Amador county.

Dr J. F. Wilson, dentist, returned last evening from a pleasant visit to his relatives in Los Gatos.

DEMOCRATS OPEN FIRE

Candidates Start Speaking at Buena Vista

The democratic candidates started on their speaking tour at Buena Vista on Wednesday evening. The meeting was held at Norris hall and was largely attended, many ladies being present. A representative of the Ledger was present to report the proceedings. The speaking was remarkably mild in character, and there was a noticeable lack of enthusiasm. No doubt the presence of a reporter had a soothing effect upon the oratory. Not once during the meeting was the Ledger or its staff mentioned—something remarkable for a democratic local candidates' meeting.

Irving Hall, candidate for assemblyman, opened the speaking by stating the position he would adhere to in the exclusion of Asiatics, if elected. He condemned corporations and especially the large steamship companies, which he claims are reaping a harvest by the present immigration law.

R. C. Bole, aspirant for judge of the superior court followed. He gave what to his mind constituted the general qualifications for the position of judge. He graduated from the Allegheny College, located in Meadville, Pa. A college, he explained, that is on a par with Harvard or Yale. He then came west and located in Jackson. The speaker jumped from his graduation to his infancy, stating he was reared in the essence and atmosphere of law, as his father was also an attorney, and from his infancy, he leaped back into Jackson and brought upon himself one of the most condemning accusations that would be hurled at any candidate, even by the most venement opponent.

I hear it is said by my enemies that I drink, that I take five or six glasses of whiskey. Now isn't that terrible, well, he added, I confess it is terrible. But I defy any man to tell me that I ever went into the court room or into my office with a drop of intoxicating liquor in me. They claim I would be disqualified in various cases that might arise because of my practice at the bar of your county. I wish to tell you if I am elected I guarantee you no extra expense in that line, because I know I can get the well known Judge McSorley from San Andreas, free of cost. He would be only too glad to serve me with such a favor. As to general ability he declared he was qualified in every respect, equal to that of his opponent. A vote for my opponent is a vote against your boy, and a vote against your neighbor.

I came into your county as a young man and spent the best of my life here, and if you vote against me, it goes without saying that some day your own boy, born and raised here, will be voted out, and the position of worth, to which he might be seeking, be tendered to a stranger who may be sent into your midst.

Many people have a wrong impression as to what is required of a man to become a superior judge. I have heard it said that the care and safe-keeping of your lives and property lies in the palm of the judge's hand. This is all wrong, I don't want it understood that I depreciate one particle of the high and exalted position, but I do say that any man who has served at least 10 years before the bar is amply qualified to fill the office, or at least 90 per cent of the duties of the office. Why it is simply a routine work, the same as you housewives perform daily. Now do you prefer a home man or a stranger who has by chance come before you?

U. S. Gregory was next called. I hardly know what I am going to say, he began, you know this is our first night out, he then cracked a joke about an old lady in Arkansas. The joke fell flat. Pointing to an old resident and calling his name, he pleaded, you know me, you know I baled hay with you 41 years ago, my life is an open book, you all have read it.

Must I now come before you and beg you for a vote? Must I answer charges that are thrust at me by enemies, and in which there is not one particle of truth—stories that are false in every line. I defy any one to say I haven't been honest in my duties as sheriff and tax collector. I don't want to talk about anybody or say harsh things about any man. Since I have grown older, I have grown better. I am a better man this minute, morally, than

DISPATCH ON LOW LEVEL

Allows Correspondent to Assail Judge Wood.

The last issue of the Dispatch contains an article, signed "Justice" and purporting to come from Sutter Creek, attacking the reputation of Superior Judge Fred V. Wood, the republican candidate for election, and lauding the ability and fitness of R. C. Bole, the democratic candidate for that position. It is apparent on the face of the communication that the article did not originate in Sutter Creek. It was written in Jackson, and by one of the combine who imagine that they have a divine commission to run the affairs of Amador county.

The Dispatch is to be congratulated upon following its customary practice on the eve of an election in turning over its editorial political management to outsiders, for the purpose of assailing official character under the guise of a fictitious signature—a practice by the way which no reputable journal will stoop to. It is safe to assert that where the assailant is too cowardly to back up his attack—by appending his true signature to the communication, his assault will carry very little weight with the voting public. The bare fact of attack from ambush is sufficient in itself to condemn it with any right-thinking individual. The attack is venomous, and is calculated to injure rather than help the aspirant for whose benefit it is launched. To show the political animus of the article, we quote the following.

Grillo brothers against Garibaldi company is a case now in the superior court where the judge was called upon for once since he has been with us to show his abilities as a lawyer. In that case both sides claimed mining ground under locations, and Judge Wood decided that neither party was entitled to the claim. Now, one party was right and the other wrong, but the decision says: "You both lose." To an outsider it looks as though both can't be wrong. If a man spoken of by these papers and his friends, as so able, can't decide this case, there is something missing somewhere. I believe Robert C. Bole would have decided it one way or the other, without fear and without favor, if he had tried it as a judge. I have heard some say around Volcano and other places, that election time was coming and that the judge, knowing the influence of the Grillo family and of the Garibaldi clan of this county, did a little electioneering.

Now here it is intimated that the judge in rendering his decision which declared that neither side was entitled to judgment, was governed by political motives—that he desired to court the favor of one or both parties thereby. By what process of reasoning the writer reaches such a far-fetched conclusion, we are not told. A verdict which gives benefit to neither plaintiff nor defendant, is not apt to please either party, and clearly shows that the judge in giving such a decision was uninfluenced by political or personal motives, but solely by a conscientious sense of his duty and his interpretation of the law. It is plain that had the object been to gain favor the decision would have been with the one having the greater political influence. But being neutral, and displeasing to both parties, shows clearly that politics had nothing to do with it. Nor does it follow that in an issue of this nature one side must be right and the other wrong. The suit was to quiet title to a mining claim held by a possessory right, and the judgment like that made in about one-third of such cases, was to the effect that neither plaintiff nor defendant had taken the necessary steps to get a clear title. There is nothing so very unreasonable in that situation. We think the decision demonstrates conclusively the independence and freedom from bias of the judge who rendered it. Of course it did not suit the lawyers on either side, one of whom was Mr Bole himself, but the sound reasoning contained in the decision has not been shaken by anything that has been shown to the contrary. It comes with bad taste to criticize that decision, in face of a pending appeal to a higher court to test the points raised therein. It is said if Mr Bole had been judge, he would have found differently. Perhaps so, but that proves nothing; it does not follow that he would have decided more righteously, or more in accordance with the laws governing the matter. It is nothing to the credit of Mr Bole to make the bald assertion that he would have interpreted the law differently.

The Dispatch sneeringly states that the only experience that Judge Wood has had as a superior judge, has been as judge of the superior court of this county. This ignores the six years' experience that Judge Wood had as a city justice and police judge of Oakland, where he was daily engaged in the trial of cases. In some of the states, a man can not be chosen to fill the office of superior judge unless he has had previous experience as a justice of the peace or criminal magistrate. In this state, it is usually considered essential that a superior judge should have had previous experience as a police magistrate or as district attorney. An attack upon Judge Wood's qualifications and experience, necessarily invites an inspection of Mr Bole's record as a lawyer.

It is with no unkind criticism that we state that Mr Bole is wholly lacking in the experience essential for a judge of the superior court. He is an office lawyer, and lacks even the experience that comes from the management of cases in court as a trial lawyer.

Bole's Experience

The representative of the Ledger has examined the records of the superior court of this county, and finds that Mr Bole, during his entire experience at the bar, has tried but three criminal cases in the superior court. During his entire fourteen years' experience at the bar, he had conducted alone but eight contested civil cases in the superior court, and assisted in the trial of seven others.

While President Taft carried Contra Costa county two years ago by 1716 majority, Judge Wood at the same election, in the same county, was defeated for judge by 724 majority.

The Dispatch scribe makes an unfortunate allusion to the fact that Judge Wood was defeated for superior judge of Contra Costa county, usually a strong republican county. This is true, and the reason, which was not given by our cotemporary, was because of a factional division of the republicans, and not owing to anything against the nominee. We may state that in Alamo, Judge Wood's home precinct, he received four votes to one for his opponent, which sufficiently shows his standing in the community where he was best known.

Contrast this with the showing made by Robt. C. Bole at the primary election last August. He had no opponent on the democratic ticket, and yet he received the smallest number of votes on either ticket, except the defeated candidates who had opponents on their own ticket. He had the lowest vote in his own town of Jackson, where he has lived for fourteen years. He received less votes in his own precinct than any other candidate. In that precinct he got 36 votes, and Judge Woods received 66. His aggregate vote in the three city precincts was 100, while Judge Woods received 222. In the county the total vote for the present superior judge was 804, against 445 cast for R. C. Bole. That doesn't look as though the people of Amador county were very favorably impressed with the qualification of Mr Bole for the judgeship, notwithstanding they have had so many years' acquaintance to size him up on this proposition.

Furthermore, it does not appear that Mr Bole has identified himself very seriously with the material interests of the county. If he has enjoyed a lucrative practice, the profits thereof have not been invested in Amador county. He has not shown that he has faith in the future of his home county even to the extent of investing in a home.

Women's Improvement Club

An enthusiastic body of women met in schoolhouse Saturday last, to transact the business of the Woman's Improvement Club of Jackson. Twelve new members were enrolled. Two new officers were created, namely, vice-president and assistant secretary.

The committee appointed at a previous meeting to make a house to house canvass in Jackson for votes for county high school, are still energetically working for the cause, and find the majority of people are anxious to see it carry on November 7.

The ladies were asked by the ways and means committee of the high school boosters club of Jackson to assist in making the grand rally of November 4 a arousing success.

After many suggestions and lively discussions as to how to make the coming rally an enthusiastic affair, the meeting adjourned to Oct. 28.

The Amendment Regarding Taxation

All the realty boards of California, in their individual and also in their collective capacities, have endorsed constitutional amendment No. 1, to be voted on at the coming election in this state. This amendment provides for the separation of state and local taxation and for imposing a tax upon the gross earnings of corporations. Secretary Leslie Burks of the San Francisco real estate board, reports that the San Francisco body, representing interests amounting to hundreds of millions of dollars in San Francisco, is unanimously in favor of the measure. The California real estate federation, in which is included all the local real estate boards from one end of the state to another, has endorsed it. The boards in all localities have taken separate similar action. In addition to this, the California state grange, which represents the farming interests of the state, has adopted unqualified resolutions of approval.

The commercial bodies of San Francisco, including the chamber of commerce of San Francisco and the merchants' association which have a membership of more than two thousand, large business, shipping, wholesaling, manufacturing and retailing, concerns adopted resolutions to the same effect some time ago. The commonwealth club began a discussion in July of the topic and concluded it in August when the amendment was approved. An organized effort will now be made to have every voter in California informed exactly regarding the provisions and the beneficial nature of the amendment which, according to a report by the state commission on revenue and taxation, is designed to accomplish the following purposes:

To separate state from local taxation as, to sources of revenue, so as to abolish the necessity for equalization between counties and to enable the counties and cities to raise more money for local purposes, if they so desire, without, as now, being punished for so doing by being compelled to pay an increased amount of state taxes; to lessen the burden of taxation on the now overtaxed farmer and small real estate owner; also to insure a steady, adequate and non-political taxation or public service corporations and of the banks. The state commission on revenue and taxation has also reported that if the amendment had been in force the taxes for the state, this year, would have yielded $746,119 more than under the existing system, which is on the basis of an ad valorem tax levy. There would have been a gross gain of $8,876,709 to the farmer and small property owner and a net gain, all losses in the county revenues being deducted, of $3,267,235. It is also set forth by the state commission that the amendment will effect complete separation of state and county taxation, and that no state tax will be necessary if the amendment is adopted by the people.

Democrats to Support Johnson

The democratic party is quite elated over the possibilities, as they see them, of the election of Theodore Bell as the next governor of California. It is a well known fact that a drowning man will grasp at a straw, and on the same principle, those who have had the bitter experience of hope long deferred are anxious to take advantage of the slightest indication and magnify it so that it seems to them a reality. Candidly, Theodore Bell has no more chance of becoming governor of California at the coming election, than William Bryan has of being the next president of the United States. Anyone that cares to sit down and consider the situation in a thoughtful or candid manner cannot fail to reach the inevitable conclusion that just as before the August primaries there was one dominant figure in the political horizon, so now there remains but one great figure, the exponent of the gospel of political regeneration before the people, namely, Hiram Johnson.

Mr Bell's strength in the campaign against Gillett was drawn largely from that class of men who call themselves independent republicans. The old readers of this paper will recall that in the campaign mentioned, the Times, under the editorship of the lamented John Wasson, advocated with all its strength the election of Theodore Bell as against James Gillett, who had the odium of being the candidate of the S. P. machine. This element in the republican party was the potent force that brought about the nomination of Hiram Johnson over his competitors. No sane person will think for a minute that after having nominated a man that commanded their confidence, and after he had proven himself the triumphant leader of the people from one end of the state to the other, that they will desert him for any uncertainty on the eighth of November.

Moreover, there are indications on every hand that many of the strongest men in the democratic party are enrolling for the election of Hiram Johnson. Charles Wesley Reed, of San Francisco, who was elected as a democratic supervisor of that city, has unequivocally declared himself for Johnson, and in an address to the public, has said, "No matter how much the independent voter may admire Mr Bell, no matter how he may have confidence in his leadership in this campaign, the voter must cast his ballot for Johnson if he desires to make his vote count for the moral regeneration of California. 'Whom should I, as a patriotic Californian, vote for as my choice of governor?' Let him ask himself that question and his answer will be, 'I must vote for the man whose defeat would please the machine politicians and the special interests and the railroads.' If Bell is elected with a hostile legislature, he would be met with many difficulties that Johnson would not have to face. The cause of progress lies with Johnson. It is Bell's misfortune that such is the case.

"The man whose vision is fixed steadfastly upon his country's best interests will vote for Hiram Johnson for governor of California."

The County Hospital Expenses

We herewith append the warrants cancelled against the hospital current expense fund from January, 1909, to October, 1910,—a period of 22 months. For the first four months the institution was in charge of F. B. LeMoin. On April, 1909, he was removed and the present superintendent put in his place, for purely political reasons. It was contended that the change would not adversely affect the interests of the inmates or of the county. We may state that during the last six months of the LeMoin administration the average number of patients was 43. During the corresponding months of the present administration the average number of patients was 47—an increase of 4. Otherwise the conditions were about the same.

The last grand jury after an investigation reported that the hospital was in a deplorable condition as regards sanitation. This report was hailed with derision by those whose business it is to look after such things. It is true, that much repair work has been done recently, which accounts largely for the heavy expenses of the last three months, which have run up beyond all precedent. It is also true that repair work is all the time needed in an institution of that character. A good deal of this work under the last administration was done by the superintendent, with such help as he could get from the inmates. The figures of warrants cancelled are as follows:

January	$882.94	$946.99
February	788.69	920.57
March	796.20	920.98
April	782.77	903.54
May	782.75	884.59
June		919.91
July	1682.61	812.85
August	807.60	1539.73
September	925.45	1204.53
October	755.88	1552.14
November	919.63	---
December	1293.19	---
	10,418.69	10,605.84

The absence of cancellations for June, 1909 is explained by the heavy figures of the following month, when the warrants for the two preceding months were cancelled.

Now this table shows clearly that the hospital expenses are on the upgrade, at an alarming rate. The cost of the ten months of 1910 overtop the cost of the year of 1909 by nearly $200. The lowest rates for the entire period of 22 months was the first four months herein reported, which was under the preceding administration of the hospital.

DON'T WAIT.

Take Advantage of a Jackson Citizen's Experience Before it's Too Late.

When the back begins to ache, Don't wait until backache becomes chronic; Till serious kidney troubles develop; Till urinary troubles destroy nights rest. Profit by a Jackson citizen's experience. Benjamin F. Gilbert, 61 E. Court street, Jackson, Cal., says: "Backache and other symptoms of kidney complaint annoyed me greatly, and my condition steadily grew worse, in spite of all my efforts for relief. It was all that I could do to attend to my work and at the end of the day, I was so tired that I could not get my proper rest. Finally a party who had taken Doan's Kidney Pills, advised me to try them and I was led to get a box at the City Pharmacy. In three days after beginning the use of this remedy, I felt its beneficial effect and in a little over a month my trouble was a thing of the past. (Statement given July 3, 1907.)

CONFIRMED PROOF.

On April 5, 1910, when Mr Gilbert was interviewed, he said: "I am glad to verify my former endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills. Since taking them in 1907, I have been free from pain in my back and my kidneys have been normal."

To this formidable array of cash that has left the county treasury for the pocket of U S Gregory during his 14 years of office holding as sheriff, must be added other sources of income from this fat position. He gets $5 a day and expenses for conveying prisoners and insane persons to state institutions, also fees for serving processes sent from other counties and commissions in insolvency or assignee sales. We again assert that the total receipts for official sources for 14 years will overtop $100,000. Isn't that about enough for one man. Surely the needy cry is not in order in this case.

THE CALICO BALL

The calico ball given under the auspices of the ways and means committee of the Jackson high school boosters' club was a grand success, financially and socially. The purpose of the ball was to raise money to carry on a high school campaign throughout the county. Receipts from the ball amounted to $280. Expenses of advertising and conducting the ball $90. Tags for boosting high school to be distributed later, $10. Cash on hand $18.

The dancers made merry in Love's hall, which was tastefully decorated in flags, ferns, hanging baskets and banners suggestive of the cause. Moore's orchestra rendered the music. The grand march was led by Mrs. Nettie and J. Garbarini. The success of the ball was due to the efforts of the following ladies: Medames Marela, Eudey, Conlon and Vicini; floor director, Mrs. Endicott; floor managers, Messrs Muldoon, Carley, Penny and Hedgepeth. Supper was served to the merry-makers in I. O. O. F. hall. Mr and Mrs Wright and others transferred the hall into an attractive banquet room. The committee extend thanks to all who assisted in the affair.

Mrs. E. E. Endicott, Ways and Means Committee.

THE HOOK WORM

Jackson, Oct. 28.

Owing to considerable excitement on account of Dr Gunn of the State Board of Health, having visited the various mines of this and other districts, inspecting the mines and miners for hookworm, I wish to say that I was with the representative of the State Board of Health, who makes a specialty of this particular disease, when he inspected the mines of this district and he informed me that with proper treatment there has never been a death from hookworm. The mines have been infected by imported miners from Cornwall, Northern Italy, Austria and other places. There is no cause for alarm, the disease is easily controlled and it is only a question of time until it will be a thing of the past. All superintendents of mines are lending their best aid toward the stamp out this trouble, not because it is a pest, but because it is nuisance. It has already been proven that many mines in the United States that employ the same kind of labor that we have in the mines of California are infected with the hookworm. Many people walking the streets of Jackson to-day are infected with hookworm, and have been for some time. This condition has been prevalent in our southern states for years and only recently discovered. Rockefeller has donated $1,000,000 to stamp it out in the South and the people never knew they had it until it was called to their attention. The same holds true of the mines of California. The cure is simple, and effective and the prevention is the observance of sanitary laws. The eggs do not develop in the system of the infected individual, but when deposited upon the proper soil and kept at the right temperature the eggs develop and gain their introduction into the human system through the skin. This trouble is no new thing in Amador county, but has been recognized and successfully treated for eight months.

It is imperative to use regular commodes and toilets, where everything can be disinfected.

E. E. Endicott, County Health Officer.

ever before in my life of 14 years service with you. All vengeance and bitterness have been driven out of my body. I feel a different man. If I refer to anything here to-night, that might be attacking my enemies and especially my opponent, don't accuse me of doing it maliciously.

I hear my opponent is said to 'be a gentleman, and I will treat him as such. One thing I will say, my opponent is a first class rustler—a number one campaigner. He is showing me cards and spades in electioneering already, with all my years of experience. Last week while I was up in the vicinity of Volcano, I learned that some candidate was just ahead of me. I tried my level best to overtake him, but could not. I found out the canvasser was my opponent, so when I reached a ranch house by the roadside, I stopped my team and went into the place. A little girl came running out and I asked her if she would be kind enough to get me a glass of water. She brought me the water and I thanked her, then I inquired if a man had just passed on up the road. Yes, she replied, he stopped here and drank two glasses of water. He said he reached into his pocket and took therefrom a package of candy which he handed to the little miss. "Oh, thank you," she said, "the other man gave me two packages of candy," well he is a good fellow isn't he." Taking a five cent piece from his purse, he handed it to the girl. "Thank you," came from the tot, but she added, "the other man gave me ten cents." Gregory here said he clearly saw that he was outwitted in his campaigning. So he stooped down and lifted the little girl into his arms and gave her a big kiss and a hug. "Oh," shouted the little girl, "the other man kissed my mamma also." Now said the sheriff, that was just a step too much for me, so I left the place convinced that I had been outwitted as a campaigner. But what am I talking about anyway, I don't know what I am saying myself.

Taking up the subject of the license which he failed to collect from Ratto, a local picture show man, he declared he acted according to the law governing his office. "Why, I had no more to do with the affair than you did."

The board of supervisors granted Ratto the free license, and I had nothing to do with it. The chairman of your board told those present that he was glad the shows were given free. I got up in the meeting of the board at that time and said if there was any omission of my duties in collecting back licenses tell me, so now, as Mr Ratto is here present, and I'll start prosecution immediately and recover the full amount. But the board told me to let it go, as they would be responsible for their actions.

The case of the liquor license granted Glenn was discussed and misrepresented, being argued so as to create sympathy and pity for him, from his audience.

I have done my duty to the utmost in preserving law and order, and I leave you to judge if I am fit to be returned.

Ernest Spagnoli, candidate for district attorney, in a frank manner told of his past experience before the bar, and of his desires to become elected to the office for which he is running. He cited many cases in which the same office has been filled on previous occasions by even younger men than himself.

Clarence E. Jarvis talked along the lines of taxation and assessment.

Geo. A. Gritton, county treasurer, was accorded a warm oration when called. Thos Ryan, county recorder, together with John Daneri candidate for coroner and public administrator, were also present, and spoke a few words about their respective offices.

J. C. Kelly, the constable was the next speaker and was followed by Chas. P. Vicini.

Vicini announced that he was present in the interest of Senator A. Caminetti, who was unable to be present. Going down the line the attorney attempted to eulogize each of the candidates, ever keeping before the audience the fact that he was only telling the truth.

One candidate who we do not hesitate to say is very efficient and although a democrat by faith was by reason of forced circumstances, due to the oncoming election unable to be present. He never as much as received a word of mention either by way of praise or condemnation. This candidate is John R. Huberty, who will be reelected for county clerk and auditor, as he has no opponent, but that his name should be dropped is a subject of comment.

Bridge Case Decision Is Handed Down

The superior court of Calaveras county, on October 17 handed down a decision in the case of Mrs Gardella vs the counties of Calaveras and Amador, in relation to the title to Big Bar bridge, spanning the Mokelumne river on the main road to Mokelumne Hill. The suit was brought to quiet title to the bridge. Mrs Gardella was negotiating with the boards of supervisors of the two counties to sell her interest in the bridge and the approaches thereto for the sum of $8000. The question of title arose, it being claimed that inasmuch as the original franchise had long since expired by limitation, the bridge had become public property, and could not again be made a toll bridge by action of the supervisors. In 1898 a petition was filed with the board of supervisors of Calaveras county asking for a franchise to collect toll. It was said that the bridge was out of repair and dangerous; that it would cost $4000 to repair it, and that the owner would put it in fit condition for travel provided a franchise to collect toll were granted by the board. It does not appear in the records that the two counties were unable to financially repair the bridge and keep it in proper condition, although it was contended that this matter was discussed and that it was the ground of granting the franchise for a toll road. At the trial in Calaveras, oral testimony was introduced to correct this omission in the record. Members of the then board of supervisors were called to prove that the reason the franchise was granted was because of the inability of the counties to assume the burden of its repair and upkeep.

This testimony was admitted against the objection of the plaintiff's counsel, the district attorney of Calaveras county, who single handed attended to the people's side of the matter. The court held the franchise thus granted was within the jurisdiction of the supervisors, and thereby confirmed the title of Mrs Gardella.

Whether the case will be appealed to the higher court we do not know, although Mr Keith, district attorney of Calaveras county, intimated that in the event of the verdict of the trial court being against him, he would appeal the case, as the only satisfactory course, where the sum of $1000 for each county is at stake. If not appealed, it is probable that the negotiations for purchase will be reopened, and the bridge bought for $8000, the price fixed by the appraisers.

Correction.

The Ledger intimated last week that John Daneri, democratic candidate for coroner, was never a regularly appointed deputy coroner under G. M. Huberty. The statement was made on the authority of another, who claimed to know, so that we did not look up the record ourself. We now find that we were mistaken. Daneri was a deputy and took the oath of office as such. He was appointed when the coroner was not able to do the work owing to an epidemic in Jackson. He did not serve in Jackson for three years, however, as stated. We are pleased to make the correction.

Wedding Announcement

Formal announcements of the wedding of Archie S. Moore, to Miss Edith D. Baker of Berkeley, were sent out this week.

Moore is director of Jackson's Military band, and has, by his untiring efforts, placed the organization on a splendid foundation.

Jackson can congratulate herself on having such a man in charge of its only musical society, and we trust sufficient appreciation of his ability will be shown to warrant his remaining in our city.

Miss Baker is the daughter of Mr and Mrs Christopher Baker, who resides at No. 1809 Ninth St., Berkeley.

The wedding ceremony will be held on Sunday, the twentieth of next month.

THE CLOSING CAMPAIGN.

In accordance with the adopted policy of the Ledger of many years' standing, the political campaign closes with this issue, so far as the introduction of new issues of a local nature are concerned. We have always made it a point, as a matter of common fairness, not to spring new complaints against a candidate in the last issue of the Ledger before the election. So that no aspirant for office can say that he was subjected to attack at the eleventh hour, when there was no opportunity of reply through ordinary newspaper channels. Moreover, it has been an invariable rule never to allow a charge against any one, whether an official, or candidate, or otherwise, to be promulgated through these columns without the real name of the writer being appended thereto. We welcome the discussion of public questions of a general character under an anonymous signature, and realize the propriety of such discussion without revealing the identity of the correspondent. It becomes a discussion of principles or ideas and the individuality of the writer is of no consequence. When personalities of a derogatory nature are indulged in, we have always insisted as a condition precedent to publication that the author's name appear with the communication. Two communications appeared in our cotemporaries last week, with fictitious signatures. One published in Sutter Creek, claims to have been written by a resident of Amador City, and criticises John S. Davis, republican nominee for sheriff. The other was published in the Dispatch, and purported to come from Sutter Creek; it assailed Judge Wood, republican candidate for superior judge. It is evident that both articles, as read between the lines, emanated from interested sources, and in furtherance of a concerted plot of illicit campaigning. That sort of electioneering is not tolerated by the Ledger. It ought to be specially resented at the polls by the people of Sutter Creek and Amador City, who are slurred by the imputation that such covert flings are indulged in by some resident of each of those towns.

In adhering to the policy herein enunciated, we want it to be clearly understood that we reserve the right to comment and enlarge upon matters heretofore introduced in these columns. We are also free to reply to any attack made upon any republican candidate, whether by publication or slanderous reports privately circulated.

THE BOND PROPOSITIONS.

The proposition to bond the state for $18,000,000 to provide for a system of state highways, is a good one to defeat. That it will be defeated, and that badly, there is no room to doubt. This measure is practically friendless, outside of a few advocates who have made the issue a pet hobby. Every section is lined up almost solidly against it, so that the possibility of this huge bonded indebtedness may be eliminated from the minds of voters.

Both the bond propositions for harbor improvements in San Francisco are worthy of support. Neither one will entail one dollar of additional taxation, as the money necessary for the redemption of bonds and payment of interest as the same fall due will be raised by the receipts from wharfage and other charges collected on the San Francisco water front. An effort is being made from self-interested motives, to create a prejudice against the India basin act, calling for one million dollars in bonds for securing and improving a tract of about sixty acres on an inlet known as Islais creek, which would prove a valuable acquisition to the city of San Francisco, and is necessary for its protection from private competition in the way of harbor facilities. Those competent to judge say it is a good investment, and the tract should not be allowed to fall into private hands, even though it may not be actually needed for harbor purposes for many years to come. The systematic campaign that is being waged against this particular bond issue indicates that there is something behind the opposition, other than a desire to promote the common weal.

The $5,000,000 bonds in aid of the Panama-Pacific exposition in San Francisco in 1915, is the only proposition that is likely to affect taxpayers generally. As a matter of state pride, this appeals to every Californian for friendly consideration, outside of the material benefits likely to flow therefrom. Every county in the state will be repaid many times over for its contribution toward this exposition fund through this bond issue. Every county—and especially one with such manifold latent resources as Amador—should indorse the exposition bonds.

SCIENTIFIC MISCELLANY

Most Novel Observatory—Natural and Artificial Fertilizers—The New Fly-Killer—Medicines of Ancient Egypt—New Stars—Magnetic Alloys of Non-Magnetic Metals—A Walking Staging—Another Smoke-Burner—Caterpillar Ophthalmia.

The unique solar observatory that is being developed by the Carnegie Institution on Mount Wilson, Cal., at a height of 6,000 feet, already has telescopes with horizontal fixed tubes, a vertical telescope with no tube at all, with elaborate spectroscopic and photographic apparatus in special-underground chambers, and is to have the huge 100-inch reflecting telescope from J. D. Hooker, the Los Angeles manufacturer. A French astronomer who visited the observatory in August, with the International Congress of Solar Research, finds the tower telescope the most curious of the apparatus. At the top of a vertical steel tower 65 feet high, a 17-inch mirror is mounted as a colostat, and is turned by clockwork to follow the apparent path of the sun. The rays of light are reflected to a second mirror—elliptical in form—which sends them downward through a lens of 60 feet focal length. The slit of a spectrograph 5 feet above ground-level receives the image of the sun thus formed, and passes the rays to a second lens and a Rowland grating in an underground chamber 30 feet below the surface. The light finally reaches an object-glass, forming an image of the solar spectrum, which is photographed. Another tubeless telescope is being erected, and will have a fixed steel tower 165 feet high, protected from the wind by an enclosing tower, with an underground chamber 78 feet deep, the whole being more than 240 feet high.

Trying various nitrogenous fertilizers, and rating the results with sodium nitrate at 100, some German experimenters have obtained these relative ratios of increase in crop: Ammonium sulphate, 93; Norwegian calcium nitrate, 96; crude calcium cyanamide, 85; animal guano, 67; fish meal, 73; blood meal, 56; leather meal, 15.

The ants of the Philippines that feed on fly larvae, and are thought by Dr. P. L. Jones, U. S. A., to explain the rarity of flies there, seem to be of unknown species. Better acquaintance is advised before importing them as fly-catchers, as they may have bad habits.

The oldest medical work known is the Ebers papyrus, discovered by Georg Ebers in his journey to Egypt in 1872-3. It is a scroll 20 yards long and a foot wide, and has been studied and translated by von Oefele, and recently reviewed by von Lippmann. It was written about 1550 B. C., though some of the material of which it is a compilation dates back to about 3700 B. C. The medical substances mentioned include copper—the oldest metal and once more costly than gold and silver—lead, iron, antimony, carbon, sulphur, salt, soda, gypsum, and other minerals; milk, fats from many animals, wax, and the horn, blood and other portions of domestic and wild animals; castor and other oils, honey, raisins, grapes, figs, dates, wine, beer, linen, flax, lanolin, papyrus, numerous resins, caraway, fennel, dill, melilot, water-cress, pepperment, coriander, lettuce, endive, absinthe, pomegranate, calamus, aloes, safflower, crocus, indigo, henbane, mandrake, opium, and other plants and vegetable products. In preparing drugs, solids were grated or powdered in a stone mortar. There were many processes of treating them, such as roasting, baking, pressing, steeping, warming, boiling in various substances, macerating with lye, evaporating, and fermenting with yeast. Liquids were filtered and clarified. Some recipes include 2 or 3 ingredients, but others range up to as many as 7 different materials.

The latest new star, discovered at the Harvard College Observatory on Oct. 1, is growing fainter, without having been bright enough to be visible to the naked eye. It was found by Mrs. Fleming on 16 photographs taken at Arequipa, Peru, between Mar. 21 and June 10, 1910, when its magnitude varied from 7.8 to 8.6; but it does not appear on 17 photographs taken between July 23, 1889, and Oct. 7, 1909. As measured at the Harvard College Observatory by direct observation on Oct. 3, 1910, its magnitude was 10.5. In the last 25 years 15 new stars have been recorded, of which 11 were found at this observatory, and 9 by Mrs. Fleming's study of photographs provided by the Henry Draper memorial.

The marine locomotive staging is a kind of platform that walks about in the water, and in English harbors it has been employed for subaqueous borings, rock removal, construction of piers, setting caissons, recovering sunken cargo, and a variety of other operations in places too exposed for barges. It was first used some years ago at Peterhead, Scotland, for removing 10,000 cubic feet of granite about 24 feet below high water. A recent machine for Whitby harbor improvements consists essentially of two structural steel frameworks, one within the other, so arranged as to move independently, and to support each other in turn in moving. Four legs on each frame can be raised independently of each other. In making a step, the legs of one frame—say the inner—are raised, the weight then resting on rollers carried on the outer frame, and this part is then pulled forward by tackles attached to the outer frame. The legs are then lowered, the others are raised, and the outer frame is pulled along on rollers resting on the inner. In practice a third frame is desirable, and in this particular machine each step forward or backward is 10 feet, and each side step 5 feet. Each leg is operated by an independent motor. The machine has traveled a total of 3600 feet over a sand bottom, moving at the rate of 310 feet in 10 hours, and experienced men have made a step of 10 feet in 15 minutes. The apparatus, 34 feet high, has resisted severe storms, with waves breaking over the platform.

A smoke preventer made in Leeds, Eng., is in the form of a hollow cone of special perforated firebrick, and is supported in the combustion chamber in the direct track of the gases from the grate. A pipe passing through the ash-pit admits a supply of air. The firebrick become redhot, the heated air combining with the unburned carbon and hydrocarbons, and ensuring their complete combustion.

A painful eye affection, ophthalmia nodosa, is attributed by a German oculist to invisible caterpillar-hairs. Lodging in the eye, these thorn covered particles cause the lid to swell, form knots under the conjunctiva, and even destroy the pupil. Brown-tail moth hairs cause rash over the whole body.

Feel Different Now?

A foolish objection was raised by a few ultra democrats because the school children attended the Johnson republican rally. It was thought at that time that Bell would have a night meeting in Jackson, so that the school question would not intrude. Last Monday, however, the school was suspended for the Bell meeting and the children were marched down in charge of their respective teachers to the gathering, 250 strong. They formed nearly one half of the crowd. We have no objection to school recess at a time of such interest, when it would be next to impossible to study. A kick against its own party is now in order from our cotemporary.

Irvine Hall, the democratic candidate for assembly in this district, was circulating around last Monday, at the Bell rally. He was distributing cards, and electioneering in a quiet way. He got on the ticket by the writing, in route.

Your cough annoys you. Keep on hacking and tearing the delicate membranes of your throat if you want to be annoyed. But if you want relief, want to be cured, take Chamberlain's cough remedy. Sold by all dealers.

Every year a large number of poor sufferers whose lungs are sore and raked with coughs are urged to go to another climate. But this is costly and not always sure. There's a better way. Let Dr. King's New Discovery cure you at home. "It cured me of lung trouble," writes W. R. Nelson, of Calamine, Ark., "when all else failed, and I gained 47 pounds in weight. Its surely the king of all coughs and lung cures." Thousands owe their lives and health to it. Its positively guaranteed for coughs, colds, la grippe, asthma, croup—all throat and lung troubles. 50 cents and $1. Trial bottle free at Spagnoli's drug store.

C. H. Turner Paroled By Prison Commission

Charles H. Turner, for six years grand secretary of the Native Sons of the Golden West, who was sentenced to three years in San Quentin by Judge Cabaniss in June, 1909, for embezzlement, has been paroled by the prison commission and is back in this city at work. Turner received his freedom in September. At the time sentence was passed the officials of the order, including Daniel A. Ryan, now grand president, who had been active in uncovering the peculation of more than $6,000, appeared before the judge and asked that the prisoner be shown mercy.—Call.

BELL VISITS OUR CITY

Delivers Speech on the Leading Issues of Campaign

Theodore A. Bell and Timothy Spellacy paid Jackson a visit on Sunday evening, and remained in town over night. The party consisting of three autos, arrived here from Ione about 7 p. m. Spellacy and the Examiner and post correspondents, R. W. Taylor and A. S. Peterson respectively were assigned to rooms in the Globe hotel, while Bell and Gresford were lodged at the National hotel. The occupants of the first auto in the party were Theo. A. Bell, Timothy Spellacy and Dr. E. E. Endicott, the second auto carried John Daneri, H. C. Gesford, and state senator, A. Caminetti. The third auto carried Chas. Vicini, Wm. Going, Ben Spagnoli, and Thos Ryan. This party had secured an auto owned by E. G. Cohan, who is on a visit to our town, and a trip was made to Ione, where the Bell party was joined and accompanied back to Jackson.

A good wholesome meal was served at each of the hotels for their guests, after which they were escorted about the town and introduced to many residents who happened to be on the streets.

H. C. Gesford, was the guest of Clarence Jarvis of Sutter Creek for the night, and Bell was taken to the home of Dr. E. E. Endicott.

At about 7 a. m. on Monday morning, the candidates traveled over to Sutter Creek and held a meeting at 9:30. The meeting was largely attended and much cheering was given the also-ran candidate. At Jackson the fair sex were doing their best to decorate the place from which the distinguished gentleman was to deliver his speech, while Bell was declaring his policies in Sutter Creek.

Wives of the leading politicians were on the committee of decorations, and their job when completed was everything that could be desired as far as looks were concerned. "But why those weeping willows?" some one asked; couldn't they have obtained something more appropriate, something more cheerful? "No, came the reply, they are emblematic of the democratic party outlook next month."

At 10:25 a. m., the autos bearing the campaigners, were stopped at the bridge at North Jackson, and the parade formed in line.

A voteless brigade of suffragettes marshaled by Walter Scott, headed the column, each jingling large cowbells, and cheering their leader with might and main. The band followed, striking up a march entitled "Little Giant," the procession moved down Main street to the front of the National hotel, where everything was in readiness for the speakers. The crowd of men, women and children easily drowned out the music of the band, by its ringing of bells and cheering.

Dr. Endicott, immediately after the speakers had mounted the platform called the meeting to order. He said, "To begin with, don't ring your bells now, ring them after the 8th of November." I now take great pleasure in introducing to you one of our townsmen who will act as chairman of this meeting, Robert C. Bole.

Mr Bole then addressed the crowd by saying: Fellow citizens, I appreciate the honor very highly of being allowed to preside at this meeting. He then read the list of vice presidents.

Timothy Spellacy was next introduced and gave a very interesting talk.

Bell was then introduced, and spoke very enthusiastically of his outlook, he thanked everyone for their kindness shown him, and expressed his regret in not being able to visit Amador county before.

Hon. Henry C. Gesford was also introduced, and he lauded the entire party in his speech.

The speaking finished at 12 o'clock noon, and the party, after partaking of luncheon, left for Angels Camp.

Kills a Murderer

A merciless murderer is appendicitis with many victims. But Dr. King's New Life Pills kill it by prevention. They gently stimulate stomach, liver and bowels, preventing that clogging that invites appendicitis, causing constipation, headache, biliousness, chills. 25c at Spagnoli's drug store.

ANY LADY can easily make from $18.00 to $25.00 per week working for me quietly in her own home locality. This is a bona fide offer—one which will pay you to investigate, even if you can only spare two hours per day. No investment required. Turn your spare time into money. MINE NEWS ALONG LODGE

Interesting Accounts of Mines Located In Amador Co.

Hardenburg

Active work has not started on this mine as yet, but operations may be looked for at any time. The parties who have taken hold are John Martin, and others who are heavily interested in the South Eureka. There is ample capital behind the promoters to develop the property in good shape. Report says that a perpendicular shaft will be sunk, of three compartments, which would indicate that those interested have the utmost faith in the property developing into a good paying mine.

Central Eureka

Preparations are being pushed ahead looking to the starting of twenty stamps of the forty stamp mill in the ore bodies which have been discovered. We are informed that four levels have been opened, exposing milling ore, and that there is ample rock to keep twenty stamps in operation. It is the same ledge that was worked years ago, and every confidence is expressed that the mine will again take its place in the dividend-paying list. The stock is selling around the $1.50 mark.

Hadley Gravel Claim.

The gravel claim of Geo. Hadley and partners, several miles east of Oleta, which was bonded for one month by parties in Jackson, was prospected for a couple of weeks in the interest of those holding the option. Clarence Bradshaw, who has had large experience in gravel mining spent several days in looking into the property, ascertaining the extent of the pay channel, and the values of the deposit, as far as practical with the limited means at his command. A meeting of the intending purchasers was held in Jackson last week, and the report of the expert considered. After weighing the matter fully, it was deemed advisable to release the option. The results obtained from about forty pans taken from various parts of the tunnels showed fair results, such as working owners could make good wages, with a prospect of striking richer pay, but it was hardly sufficient for speculative purposes, where all labor would have to be hired at ruling wages. It is reported that other parties were anxious to take hold. There is no doubt that the country thereabout abounds with auriferous gravel deposits underlying the lava cap.

Lincoln Mine

The electric driven turbine pump has now been running nearly two months, and during that time has thrown from the shaft nearly ten million gallons of water, most of this water coming from the upper stopes of the Mahoney and Wildman mine, with which the Lincoln is connected. This connection is between the 300 and 400 in the Lincoln shaft and as the shaft has now been cleared about 240 feet, it is believed that most of the water has been drained. The three mines are now making about 100 gallons of water per minute, the capacity of the pump is 300 gallons per minute. Soon as the 500 level is reached the management will run a west crosscut in the hope of striking the west ledge found in the South Eureka. If this ledge is found, the Lincoln stock will follow the example of its neighbors, South and Central and soar to high figures.

It's the World's Best

No one has ever made a salve, ointment or balm to compare with Bucklen's Arnica salve. It's the one perfect healer of cuts, corns, burns, bruises, sores, scalds, boils, ulcers, eczema, or salt rheum. For sore eyes, cold sores, chapped hands, or sprains, it's supreme. Infallible for piles. Only 25c at Spagnoli's drug store.

Better Photographs

When you have your "photos" taken by LOGAN you get better workmanship and more satisfaction than anywhere else. Up-to-date apparatus, the best of skill and many years of experience have given LOGAN a well deserved reputation. He is the premier photographer of Stockton. When you come to town don't fail to call at the studio—15 S. San Joaquin St. Prices always moderate—work always best.

It is in time of sudden mishap or accident that Chamberlain's Liniment can be relied upon to take the place of the family doctor, who cannot always be found at the moment. Then it is that Chamberlain's Liniment is never found wanting. In cases of sprains, cuts, wounds and bruises, Chamberlain's Liniment takes the soreness and drives away the pain. Sold by all dealers.

General Abilities

It is unfortunate that Mr Bole's name should be mentioned in comparison with Judge Wood. Where, it may be asked, has R. C. Bole displayed his legal acumen. What important contested case has he ever tried, and won? Where, either in criminal or civil cases, has he exhibited a profound knowledge of law, or an insight of fundamental principles of right and justice? His partisans have had the audacity to argue that he is an ideal judge because he is cold and distant—removed from the ordinary trend of human nature. What a libel upon our common humanity. He has been city attorney for several years, drawing a salary of $25. One notable sample of his conduct as attorney came within the knowledge of the editor of the Ledger. The contract for city printing had just been awarded to the Ledger. The very first act in that line after this contract had been let, was to send below for the printing of election ballots—not only in violation of a public obligation, but also against the interests of the city of Jackson. The only reason we could get for this act of local disloyalty from the then city clerk was that the attorney advised this action, "because a printing house below kept an attorney to look after such matters, to see that the work complied with the requirements of law." What a confession coming from an attorney employed to attend to such things. Whether the legal advice was prompted by partisanship or a sense of inability to tell whether a ballot was within legal requirements or not we know not, but in either case it is anything but a recommendation for a judgeship. It is about on a par with one judge sending his case to a brother judge for decision, because he had had more experience in rendering judicial decisions.

Deafness Can not be Cured

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars or any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC

Affected With Hook Worm.

Dr. Gunn, a member of the state board of health, was in Amador county early in the week, called hither to investigate the reports that hook worm prevailed in the mines of this section. Some cases of this disease were discovered by Dr. Sprague about a year ago. It was proved beyond doubt that several miners of this vicinity were suffering from this malady. After treatment the patients quickly recovered. Dr. Gunn found that all the mines along the mother lode were more or less affected, and not only in Amador but also in other counties. Measures will be adopted to disinfect the mines, and take sanitary steps to guard against the disease in future. The disease is prevalent in the mining regions of Europe, as well as among the native of oriental countries.

On account of the presence of hookworm among them, the influx of Hindoos into California has been checked by the federal authorities. Those of this race already here are leaving for their native land. Since the report of this disease among them, they find it increasingly difficult to secure work, and hence are taking the homeward track.
